ALLISON ISHMAN WINS ILLINOIS MERITORIOUS AWARD FROM AMERICAN MASSAGE THERAPY ASSOCIATION

Allison Ishman, owner of Ishman BodyCare Center Inc. received the Illinois Meritorious Award from the American Massage Therapy Association at the state convention in May of 2008. This award openly honors an AMTA member for diligent volunteerism done in an altruistic manner, and recognizes the contribution of the recipient to the massage therapy field.

Michael Hovi, Clinical Director of Massage Therapy at the Soma Institute in Chicago and AMTA-Illinois Chapter Treasurer, nominated Ishman for the award. Allison directs and practices clinical and sports massage therapy at the Ishman BodyCare Center in Naperville, runs MassageTableRentals.com and MassageSupplier.com business, and is focusing on writing Fascial Link Therapy training materials and teaching continuing education courses for massage therapy professionals.

She will attend the national AMTA convention in Phoenix in September, where she will receive her state award. State meritorious award recipients are also nominated for the National Meritorious Award, which is given at the September convention in Phoenix this year.
